

CGFA Foundation Scholarship and Internship Assistance Programs

The Members of the California Grain & Feed Association desire to assist outstanding college students in achieving their scholastic goals.

You Could Qualify

Awards are made available for students who plan to enroll or are currently enrolled in a 4-year college or university. Upcoming awards will be distributed for the Fall Semester/Quarter of 2023.

Eligibility

Acceptable fields of study include, but are not limited to: agribusiness, production and those with an emphasis on agriculture.

Special interest in the California grain and feed industry is an important component. Sophomore to Senior Undergraduates and Graduate students enrolling or enrolled on a full-time basis in college or universities are eligible.

Criteria

Awards are made on the basis of the following criteria:

- Your affiliation through programs, internships, events and/or tours offered or promoted by the CGFA Foundation. Including the student's present and future interest in the California grain and feed industry.
- Letter of recommendation.
- Scholarship personal letter question.
- Your scholastic achievement and activities.

Applications

Application forms can be downloaded from the California Grain & Feed Association website www.cgfa.org. You may also write the CGFA Foundation Office at 1521 "I" Street, Sacramento, CA 95814 or call at 916-441-2272.

Deadlines

Applications must be received in the CGFA Office no later than March 24, 2023. Public announcement of the awards will be made at the California Grain & Feed Association's Annual Convention in April 2023. Scholarship recipients, as well as other applicants will receive notification by mail following the announcement of the awards.
